

For Women's Rights

(to the tune of Auld Lang Syne)

We stand together side by side, we will defend our rights
We stand together side by side, we'll not give up this fight
For women's rights are human rights, we won't let you forget
For women's rights are human rights, this isn't over yet.

Politicians and their friends may think we can be cowed
Our minds and bodies we'll defend, our NO will ring out loud.
For women's rights are human rights, we won't let you forget
For women's rights are human rights, this isn't over yet.

So gie's a hand in sisterhood, our sex won't be denied
For dignity, reality, we are standing side by side
For women's rights are human rights, we won't let you forget
For women's rights are human rights, this isn't over yet.
